Step 1. IDENTIFY WHERE YOU WILL VISUALIZE, WHAT TIME, AND HOW LONG?

Decide if it will be in the living room or bedroom, morning or evening, and is it 3-5 minutes or longer (no more than 10 minutes, though).

Step 2. WRITE DOWN 3 DREAMS/DESIRES THAT YOU WILL CONSCIOUSLY THINK ABOUT.

Write down at least three desires. Include details such as what you see, hear, feel, taste and smell. Be specific. What are you wearing? Who is with you? What environment are you in? Breathe deeply, enjoy the process and notice how you feel while writing.

Step 3. WHAT CAN YOU DO NOW TO BRING MORE OF THAT FEELING INTO YOUR LIFE?

This doesn't have to be a big action step. You can simply make a list of everything you can possibly think of doing that would be consistent with this feeling. If prosperity is one of the essential qualities, ask yourself, "What things, activities and experiences bring me the feeling of abundance, wealth, opulence, luxury and prosperity?"

EXTRA CREDIT IDEAS:

1. Create a Vision Board. Go through the magazines you have around the house or go buy some. Cut out pictures and words that resonate with you. Get glue or tape and a poster board and adhere the pictures on the board. Put the poster board some place where you will see it every day.

2. Create a vision box. Find a cardboard box or other type of box you like. Write on all four sides and the top of the box: "Whatever is contained in this box, IS!" From the magazines you have, cut out pictures and words and place them in your vision box. Put the vision box someplace in your house where you will see it daily. Add to it whenever you see something that you think you would like to have. Open the box and go through it every year or so. Take out what has been manifested and add more of your new dreams and desires.

"I accept and receive unexpected good, unexpected money, unexpected love, unexpected kindness, unexpected generosity, unexpected offers, unexpected prosperity coming in, unexpected ways from unexpected places in my life, and the life of others.

I am constantly guided and boldly empowered to receive the lavish abundance of the Universe! I accept the Principle that abundance and prosperity have already been given to me. My acceptance makes it real and opens the space for manifestation to rush in! I open wide the doors of my consciousness to receive and to give! It is done now! – The Oath of Manifestation, Reverend Dr. Cheryl Ward
